November 17–20th, 2011

“ASK, SEEK, KNOCK”

"For each of you to receive revelation unique to your own needs and responsibilities, certain guidelines prevail. The Lord asks you to develop "faith, hope, charity and love, with an eye single to the glory of God." Then with your firm "faith, virtue, knowledge, temperance, patience, brotherly kindness, godliness, charity, humility, [and] diligence," you may ask, and you will receive; you may knock, and it will be opened unto you."
Russell M. Nelson, October 2009 General Conference

Date/Time	Event	Location
11/17/2011 7:00PM	Kickoff Fireside, Lynn Johnson We kick off a busy weekend with “Can You Hear Me Now?” from Lynn Johnson, public affairs director of the Tempe South Stake and co-founder of Project Uplift, which brings reading volunteers into classrooms at an inner city Phoenix school. Relating Elder Nelson’s October 2009 talk to her own experiences, she and the Phoenix Single Adult Choir start us off on a spiritual high.	Chandler AZ Alma Stake Center 2252 W. Mesquite St., Mesa, AZ 85224 (Dobson and Mesquite Roads)
11/18/2011 8:30PM–12:30AM Cost: $15	Activity Night, Arizona Science Center Looking for great conversation? What better place to strike up one than over an exhibit of animal brains or while walking through an enormous stomach? Searching for thrills? Try riding the SkyCycle across a 90-foot high wire. Hoping for romance under the stars? Maybe you’ll find it in the Dorance Planetarium. The Arizona Science Center offers conference goers all of this and more, plus dancing, karaoke and a dessert buffet. DJ: Ben Sanderson Karaoke: Suzanne Nielsen	Arizona Science Center 600 E. Washington, Phoenix, AZ 85008 (Washington and 6th Street)
11/19/2011 10:30AM–11:30AM	Morningside, Sheila Riddell If anyone understands the challenges LDS singles and single parents face, it’s Sheila Riddell, who walked away from a writing and acting career in Hollywood to raise her son and daughter in Arizona following a divorce. As someone who has been there, her empathetic take on personal revelation is one you won’t want to miss.	Gilbert Stapley Stake Center 1100 N. Cooper Rd., Gilbert, AZ 85223 (Cooper and Houston Roads)
11/19/2011 11:30AM–12:30PM Cost: $7	Lunch, Pulled Pork BBQ Buffet We won’t hand you a sack lunch and send you on your way—instead, we’re firing up the pit for slow-smoked BBQ and bringing a variety of mouthwatering sides. Not enough to put you into a food coma, but plenty of goodness to get you ready for a wonderful afternoon.	Gilbert Stapley Stake Center 1100 N. Cooper Rd., Gilbert, AZ 85223 (Cooper and Houston Roads)
11/19/2011 1:00PM–3:00PM	Hike, South Mountain Javelina Canyon Mingle and meet in the beauty of the outdoors. Experience scenic views of Phoenix and make new friends. The hike is 3 miles total and is considered easy. Directions to Trailhead: From Mesa, take US-60 West to I-10 East. Immediately take Exit 155 (Baseline Road). Turn right on Baseline Rd, go 1 mile, turn left on 46th Street. Go all the way to the trailhead parking lot at the end of the road.	Meet at the Gilbert Stapley Stake Center at 12:30 to carpool or meet at the trailhead.
